Our Values

Experience
Quantum's foundations lie in kitchen manufacturing knowledge and experience. In 1975, the first cabinet was built, and from there, Quantum was born. These bespoke kitchens have been cultivated by Quantum's highly respected CEO, who grew up around the business, and the ever-expanding team.

Every Quantum kitchen is made to order, to ensure you receive durable, purpose-built cabinets. Each cabinet is crafted using a combination of cutting-edge machinery and classic workmanship, resulting in both precision-built kitchens and exceptional quality. Quantum cabinets are all hand-assembled and undergo rigorous quality checks before leaving the premises.

Reliability
Each Quantum kitchen comes with a full 25-year guarantee on doors, drawers, cabinets and hinges. Lasting quality deserves lasting reassurance. That's why our kitchens come with a guarantee that reflects the confidence we have in our craftsmanship.

For more information visit www.quantum-kitchens.co.uk/guarantee

Responsibility
At Quantum, we recognise our responsibility to reduce the environmental impact of manufacturing. We strive to source all our wood materials from responsibly managed, sustainable forests. Every piece of wood waste generated while making your kitchen is used as fuel to heat our factory and offices, putting waste to good use and reducing our reliance on other energy sources.

Netherton Taupe Grey & Willow.

Origin

Origin is a beautiful, eclectic range of kitchens, covering modern, handleless profiles through to traditional Shaker doors. With a wide range of styles, designs and finishes available, you can opt for a unique blend of doors to create a truly exceptional kitchen. This collection is incredibly versatile, extending itself beyond the kitchen and into living areas. From open floating shelves to bench seating, you can cultivate the entirety of your home to suit your taste.

The furniture featured throughout the following pages is designed around the way you live, creating spaces that not only accommodate your lifestyle, but truly embrace it. No matter how you and your family operate, your kitchen design doesn't need to result in any compromise. Whether you're looking to include certain appliances, or would like to create a particular ambience within your home, this eclectic collection of door styles has been selected to provide you with flexibility and choice.

The design preferences and vision you have for your kitchen and other living areas can be transformed into a reality by a network of independent retailers. Each Quantum studio has been carefully chosen to provide you with a reliable, experienced team who are equipped to meet your unique needs.

The Icons

Real Wood

This symbol indicates the door style is made from real wood or real wood veneers. This could be oak or ash.

Made-to-Measure

This kitchen can be made in virtually any size you require.

Colour Match Service

This door style can be painted in any colour you wish. Simply provide us with a RAL or BS Code.

Paint-to-Order

This symbol shows you can choose a painted colour from one of our two carefully chosen colour palettes.

Palette One consists of 35 bold matt finishes.

Palette Two is available in 36 beautiful painted colours, perfect for any door style.

Leigh

Unapologetically modern, Leigh offers bold ventures or conservatively clean designs. The extensive colour choices available allow for expression in all forms. Whether you want to create a minimally cool design or a bright, bubbly aesthetic, this contemporary door style can be implemented. With the option of bold metallic plinths and a distinctive stop handle, partially sculpted into the doors, this clean, balanced kitchen is ideal for the modern home.

Brook

Brook's clean lines and integrated J-profile handle create a sleek, uncluttered kitchen with a distinctly contemporary feel. With no protruding handles to interrupt the cabinetry, the door design brings a sense of flow to the space while keeping everyday use effortless. Its understated styling provides a versatile foundation, whether you prefer crisp, architectural simplicity or a softer, more relaxed kitchen layered with natural textures and personal touches.

The Pleasure of Colour

Maximalism exudes joy and warmth, achieved by layering rich colours, intricate patterns and tactile textures to create an evocative space. The deep shade of Matt Copse Green, complemented by delicate florals and elegant gold flourishes, creates an inviting and luxurious ambience. Thoughtfully layered details add depth, character and a sense of timeless elegance.

Linden

For those looking to create something truly bespoke, Linden offers exceptional design flexibility. Unique within the Quantum slab collection, it is available in a considered selection of matt, woodgrain and stone-effect finishes. Every door is Made-To-Measure, allowing each design to be tailored beautifully to the individual space.

Design Tip

Lighting can have a huge impact on the atmosphere of a room. Darker kitchens work extremely well with warm lighting to create an inviting and relaxed space, whilst pastel hues work well with cooler white lighting to create an invigorating atmosphere. There are a multitude of lighting options, including spots, LEDs and statement pendants to personalise your home.

Design Tip

Pair deep-coloured cabinet doors with light worktops to create contrast and keep the kitchen feeling balanced. LED-lit open shelving adds depth and showcases your favourite pieces, while strip lighting beneath the worktop edge highlights the cabinetry's clean lines. Lighting also plays a big part in taking your kitchen from day to night, shifting the mood from bright and practical to soft and atmospheric. Choose dimmable, warm white LEDs to create an inviting setting for relaxed evenings.

Hawthorn

Hawthorn brings a fresh perspective to contemporary kitchen design, combining a clean slab door with a distinctive selection of textures and finishes.

As a new addition to the collection, Hawthorn is available in 12 finishes, ranging from striking geometric designs to tactile material and natural woodgrain effects, offering plenty of scope to create a distinctive look. From modern industrial elegance to calm, neutral schemes, Hawthorn offers the versatility to complement a variety of kitchen styles and interiors.

Scandinavian Design

Whites and soft, natural tones provide the perfect foundation for Scandinavian design. Subtle woodgrain textures introduce warmth and depth, whilst understated neutral shades create a calm and considered backdrop. Plants and natural materials bring an organic touch, adding warmth and life to a beautifully simple Nordic-inspired space.

Veryan

Veryan is the definition of a minimalist Shaker kitchen. With a shallow centre panel and velvet-smooth painted finish, Veryan's detailing is subtle, but no less beautiful than its traditional counterparts.

Multi-panel doors enhance Veryan's sleek styling, while beaded panels and mantel corbels bring a touch of classic detailing to the design.

Holne

The Holne kitchen is defined by gentle lines and a simple design. The subtle colour palette offered alongside this kitchen brings a graceful, delicate feel to any design. To further this sense of serenity found within the home, organic oak worktops and accessories can be included as they promote warmth and character. Additionally, traditional touches such as dressers lend a sense of comforting tranquillity to the overall ambience of the room.

Design Tip

A kitchen doesn't have to be confined to one room. Thoughtful planning can extend the design beyond the main space, with a separate utility or pantry providing valuable additional storage. This allows everyday essentials to be kept close at hand while maintaining a clean, considered look throughout the kitchen.

Colour

Silverton

This modern, gentle Shaker design is the ideal choice if you're looking to put a contemporary spin on a farmhouse kitchen. The bevelled edges offer a softened design, especially compared to traditional Shaker doors. The smooth finish and narrow shaker frame provide a modern style, while neutral colours, natural materials and traditional accessories offer the essential edge when melding tradition into the design. The key to this interior design trend is to combine the most charming characteristics of a country kitchen with contemporary favourites.

Nailsworth

Crafted using advanced foil technology, Nailsworth captures the warmth and beauty of painted timber while being more resilient to humidity and everyday wear. This makes it a practical, low-maintenance option that retains its elegant finish for years to come. Available in a curated palette of stocked colours – Porcelain, Taupe Grey, Light Grey, Indigo and Reed Green – Nailsworth gives you the flexibility to create subtle harmonies or bold contrasts. Its wider made-to-order palette offers even more possibilities, ensuring every space feels personal and distinctive.

Pennington

Pennington combines the character of painted oak with the practicality of a durable, low-maintenance foil finish. Advanced foil technology creates a highly realistic woodgrain effect, with greater resistance to humidity than natural timber and less upkeep, making it a practical choice for busy homes.

Its narrow frame brings a contemporary edge to the design, while the oak-effect finish works beautifully with complementary colour palettes, clever storage and statement worktops. The result is a versatile style that feels both elegant and effortless to live with.

Wickham

Warm pastels and deep hues combine to create a quirky, bold space. Bright and contrasting colour themes, such as this kitchen featuring Vintage Pink and Slate Blue, ensure the space is eye-catching and inviting. The natural grain and texture of Wickham's five-piece Shaker door contributes to this lively atmosphere, whilst the versatile, classic design lends itself to any theme. To continue along this interior design trend, patterned worktops and open shelving are ideal for homes brimming with personality.

A Luxe Ambience

When rich colours, textures and finishes are thoughtfully combined, they create a beautifully luxurious feel. Woodgrain or textured doors paired with brushed brass handles and marble worksurfaces create an elegant blend of natural and refined materials. Accents of colour on walls, alongside bespoke, colour-matched doors, add depth and personality to create a sophisticated and considered design.

Design Tip

If you have space for an island, we highly recommend including one in your design. They are perfect if you wish to incorporate a seating area, as well as maximising storage and cooking space. When it comes to designing your island, ensure you think outside of the box and include elements such as a rail for your tea towels or open shelving for accessibility.

Shaldon

Inspired by Georgian design, Shaldon brings an elegant, refined feel to the classic Shaker kitchen. Its slim frame and narrow stiles create a lighter, more understated profile that sits comfortably in both contemporary and traditional homes. The natural texture of real wood adds warmth and character, softening the door's clean lines. Whether paired with simple handles for a modern finish or more decorative detailing for a period-inspired scheme, Shaldon offers timeless style with a contemporary touch.
